

FRENCH FOR WORK & LIFE – ALL LEVELS

Bespoke - Collaborative - Delivering results

As a former company director, I understand the challenges businesses face in fostering effective communication across diverse teams and markets. To that end, I offer flexible, bespoke online language classes designed specifically for corporate environments.

I'm a French native speaker with expert knowledge of French and English. I will help you:

- communicate efficiently and avoid misunderstandings,
- overcome language barriers slowing down decision-making,
- meetings, and workflows,
- master cultural differences.

All with the aim to give you, and your team, the edge to build/strengthen relationships with your French partners/colleagues, and increase sales and revenue as a result.

Based on my own learning experience, my method shows you how to take charge of the learning process, actively use French, and feel confident. It's collaborative and proven to deliver results in business.

And if you're busy and need ad hoc support for meetings, phone/video calls, correspondence, presentations or socialising, why not get a voucher for a taster session?

MY EXPERIENCE IN BRIEF

- I'm French and trilingual (French / English / Italian).
- I have 20+ years of teaching experience, including at university.
- I'm the former manager of a publishing company.

I became a teacher because I'm passionate about languages, I'm a natural communicator, and love nothing more than seeing my students empowered with language.

“ Caroline is an exceptional teacher who builds bespoke packages for executives, companies and individuals... as a previous company director, she understands time pressure and maximises learning to its fullest. ”

Her patient approach and ability to teach at all levels has blown my mind, this is learning but not like you have experienced before! If you need French for business, for client interactions or simply want to improve your language ability, do get in touch with Caroline, you will not regret your decision.
